Dear Joe,

Thank you for that.

I'm not sure that a conference call is necessary given that the strategy was agreed on at our last meeting on 29 November. We were to send a short letter asking for the redemption figure and follow up with a letter setting out the legal basis of our challenge.

I understand that Nick and Harry have been working on this.

I agree that it should be sent without delay.

There's perhaps little point in contacting Andrew until the challenge is ready.

Kind regards

Nicola

Dear Nicola

I also send my apologies for not including you in the email chain late yesterday afternoon.

I attach the letter from Dentons. I have since replied:

>
> I look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.

I will be in contact as soon as I have a response.

Dear Nicola,

Apologies, that was my fault. I saw Peter and Joe yesterday and asked whether Dentons had responded. There had been no response, so I asked Peter and Joe to please send a chaser. That was done on the spot, via email, but "Reply" was pressed in error instead of "Reply All".

Dear Joe,

Please kindly forward the reply from Dentons.

Kind regards,

Nick

Dear All,

I understand that you have had recent contact with Denton's with regard to my case. I am surprised not to have been informed or copied in. Could you please kindly forward this to me.

Kind regards

Nicola
