Letter of engagement

9 April 2018

Private and Confidential

Nicola Johnson
Warwick House,
8 Addison Crescent,
London W14 8JP

Dear Nicola,

BARCLAYS MORTGAGES

Following recent discussions, I write to confirm that I am pleased to undertake the assignment (the 'Assignment'), described further below. The purpose of this letter is to set out formally my terms for carrying out the Assignment.

Preamble

The objective of this assignment is to secure compensation in relation to the mortgages granted by Barclays Bank PLC to Ziad Takieddine (via his companies) in February 2009 (the 'Mortgages'), including the loan of GBP 6,000,000 to Warwick Estates Limited secured against Warwick House, 8 Addison Crescent, London W14 8JP (the 'London Mortgage') and the loan of EUR 6,000,000 to SCI Lamartine secured against 40, Avenue Georges Mandel, Paris 75116 (the 'Paris Mortgage').

Compensation may potentially be secured from Barclays Bank and/or from a number of alternative sources, including but not limited to the financial, legal and other advisors involved in the Mortgages.

The amount of compensation could potentially include the principal amounts loaned, accrued interest, penalty interest and/or other amounts including but not limited to compensation in respect of legal costs incurred in the course of the assignment and/or in previous related actions and compensation in respect of the consequential losses suffered as the result of the actions of the bank and/or the advisors.

WARWICK
RISK MANAGEMENT

The compensation secured could take one or more of a variety of forms, including but not limited to a cash settlement or settlements, full or partial release from the burden of the Mortgages, or a combination of the above.

1. The Assignment

The Assignment comprises consultancy work and claims management services with reference to the Mortgages. The objective of the Assignment is to secure compensation in respect of the Mortgages.

The Assignment will be carried out in the UK and other jurisdictions and may be on multiple fronts, including but not limited to litigation against the Bank and/or third parties involved with the Mortgages, including financial, legal and other advisors, negotiation with the Bank and/or the advisors, media campaigns in support of the Assignment and co-ordination with politicians, regulators and/or criminal prosecutors.

I will be responsible for instructing such legal and other advisors as I may consider necessary to carry out the Assignment and for co-ordinating their actions. I will also be responsible for meeting the costs and expenses of any advisors so instructed.

You will supply me with all background information necessary for due completion of the Assignment, including any contracts, reports, presentations, email correspondence and any other ancillary documentation relevant to the Assignment.
Once this letter has been signed there is a 14 days' 'cooling off' period during which you may cancel the agreement and be entitled to a refund of any payments made. For the avoidance of doubt, cancelation of the agreement within the 14 days' 'cooling off' period will also cancel the 'Success Fee' arrangement set out below.

Thereafter this agreement may be terminated without penalty by either party at any stage. For the avoidance of doubt, termination of the agreement after the 14 days' 'cooling off' period will not terminate the 'Success Fee' arrangement set out below.

2. Personnel and contact point

The Assignment will at all times be carried out by me and I will report to you who will be my only contact.

3. Fees

We have agreed that no fee will be payable apart from the Success Fee, defined further below.

We have also agreed that you will not be responsible for meeting any of the costs incurred by me in the course of the Assignment unless such costs have been expressly agreed by you in writing.

Success Fee

We have agreed that the "Success Fee" will be 50% of any compensation realised pursuant to the Assignment, monetary or otherwise, howsoever obtained (the "Compensation"). In the event of the Compensation comprising two or more amounts ("Compensation Amounts"), then the Success Fee will be 50% of each of those Compensation Amounts.

In the case of some or all of the Compensation taking the form of a cash settlement or settlements, the relevant Success Fee is payable within 7 days of your receipt of such cash settlement or settlements.

In the case of some or all of the Compensation taking the form of release from one or more mortgage obligations, the relevant Success Fee is payable within 7 days of the realisation of the benefit of such release. For example, if the Compensation should include full or partial release from the London Mortgage, the relevant Success Fee is payable within 7 days of your receipt of the net proceeds from the sale of Warwick House.

We have agreed that, for the purpose of calculating the Success Fee, no costs will be deducted from Compensation, unless such costs have been expressly agreed by you in writing. Simply put, in the event of success we will share the Compensation on a 50:50 basis, but any costs or expenses will be wholly for my account (unless otherwise agreed in writing by you).

4. Acceptance

This letter forms the entire agreement between us for the Assignment specified in paragraph 1 of this letter and supersedes any previous agreements, letters of engagement, undertakings or correspondence in connection therewith. The terms set out in this letter shall take effect immediately upon signing this letter and returning it to me, or upon the commencement of the provision of services by me, whichever is the earlier.

Please read carefully the terms of this letter to ensure it reflects your requirements and that the conditions are acceptable to you. Should you require clarification of any matter or if anything in this letter causes you any difficulty, please inform me so that I may discuss the matter with you. Any variation of its terms should be in writing, signed by both you and myself as evidence of the variation.

5. Risks

We would point out that there are risks involved in making a claim against a bank. They include cost, time involved of pursuing a claim against a bank, the risk that the dispute will end in court and the possibility of losing money.

6. Exclusion of Liability

I accept liability to consumers as defined in and to the extent applicable under the Consumer Rights Act 2015 and under all other applicable statutory obligations. Where you are not a consumer (as so defined) I shall not be liable for any amount in the event of any contractual or non-contractual claims (including claims in the tort of negligence) arising out of or in connection with this agreement, save where such claim arises from my fraud, wilful default or gross negligence. In the event of any such claim, you may claim from me for losses arising directly from my fraud, wilful default or gross negligence but in no event may you claim for indirect or consequential losses (including any loss of profit you may suffer).
