For the attention of: Justin Moss

From: Nick Stoop

1. IN CONSIDERATION of you having agreed to accept Nicola Maxine Takieddine as a client of your firm (the "Client") upon the terms of your Client Care Letter dated 24 June 2010 (the "Agreement") on the terms set out therein, I HEREBY GUARANTEE the payment by the Client to you of the all monies payable to you by the client, whether by way of fees, disbursements or otherwise, including VAT thereon, up to a maximum of £85,000 (Eighty five thousand pounds) (the "Agreed Limit") upon production by you of the relevant invoices.

2. If the Client shall default in the payment of your fees in respect of any invoice I will upon written demand by you pay you such amounts, whether in respect of fees, disbursements, VAT or any other amounts whatsoever up to the Agreed Limit.

3. This Guarantee shall not be revoked for so long as the Client remains a Client of Moss Fallon LLP nor shall it be revoked or discharged by my death or bankruptcy or the death or bankruptcy of the Client.

4. This Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect despite any variation or alteration of the terms or provisions of the Agreement with or without my consent including any increase in your hourly rates, provided such increase is notified in advance to the Client.

5. This Guarantee shall not be discharged nor shall it be released by any arrangement made between the Client and yourself with or without my consent or by any indulgence forbearance or time given to pay or failure or neglect on your part whether as to payment time performance enforcing the Agreement or otherwise.

6. This Guarantee shall constitute me as principal debtor.

7. Any demand shall be valid if sent by post or left at my address specified above or such other address as I may notify to you in writing as to where any such demand should be sent.

8. This Guarantee shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.

IN WITNESS whereof the Guarantor has executed this instrument as a deed the day and year first above mentioned.

Dated 2010
